

On Macabre Lines : Original Railway Tales to Haunt the Imagination

Phil Mathison

A collection of short fictional railway mystery stories. In Britain, in the land of their birth, railways hold a special place in the heart of the nation. The supernatural, the ghostly, and all things macabre have always excited and intrigued the mind. Together, these two topics, railways and the unexplained, exert a mysterious fascination. Here, you will find tales of murder, ghosts, demons and of hauntings played out against the backdrop of the steel rail, the whiff of steam and the clang of buffers.
