

On Sunset Beach (Library Edition)

Mariah Stewart, Narrator Xe Sands

Carly Summit grew up wealthy and privileged in a tiny Connecticut town, opened her own gallery in New York City, and is about to make art world history displaying previously unknown works by a prominent twentieth-century painter. No wonder she possesses a can-do attitude that cant be soured. Ford Sinclair is another story. A military career in war-torn Africa, where he witnessed unspeakable violence and suffering, has left him haunted and deeply cynical. Now hes looking for a way to forget and a place to belong. He hopes to find both back home in St. Dennis. When Carly is forced to move the premiere of her new exhibition from Manhattan to St. Dennis, and Ford agrees to take charge of the towns only newspaper, the two cross paths. But its hardly the start of a beautiful friendship. While Ford cant ignore her charms, Carlys unflappable good cheer only confounds him. Yet beneath Fords stormy brooding, Carly sees a man worth caring about- even if her warmest ways cant thaw his frozen heart.
