

On a Knife Edge : My Nlp Story

Natalie Debrabandere

In 2010 my relationship exploded in my face, and a year later I was diagnosed with severe clinical depression. Not long after this, my job was made redundant, and I simply decided to give up. By the end of 2012 I believed that I should get busy dying. Fast forward to 2015, and I am an Empowerment Coach, Author and Trainer of NLP. This is the story of how I brought passion and joy back into my life, by choosing to think differently - it could be yours, too...
