On the Road to Anywhere

Hugh Lunn

When Mrs Jerry Newsham read one of Australia's favourite books, Over the Top With Jim, she liked it so much she sent it to the presenter of her favourite radio program, Ian McNamara, host of Australia All Over. He enjoyed it so much he serialised the book, and then it became the focus of a travelling show, with author Hugh Lunn appearing on stage as part of a national tour. On the Road to Anywhere tells the whole lively and engaging story, in the voice that Australians have loved and urged their friends to read since Over the Top With Jim was first published.
