

Only Here to See the Rangers : Forty-Five Years of Follow- Following

Gordon Cubie

Gordon Cubie has been a Rangers supporter for over fifty years and has been going to Ibrox since 1970. In this book, he tells his own story of the big games, the Cup Finals, the European nights and the Championships won, interspersed with his own personal memories. Read how he got invited to sit in the Directors box, why Derek Parlane sent him a get-well message when he was in hospital why he got invited to play for Partick Thistle how he helped arrest a Celtic fan how he travelled to Norway with the Scotland team and shared a bottle of champagne with the Celtic Chairman how Ally McCoist invited him and his wife to dinner how he got attacked on the way to a Cup Final, and why his daughter got asked to lead out the team at Ibrox. Its a fascinating story of an ordinary Rangers fan.
